“Love one another with brotherly affection”

Romans 12:10

“All of you, have . . . sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind”

1 Peter 3:8

“Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.”

Ephesians 4 v2,3

“Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.”

Colossians 3:13-14

Be united with other Christians. A wall with loose bricks is not good. The bricks must be cemented together.

- Corrie Ten Boom

To a true child of God, the invisible bond that unites all believers to Christ is far more tender, and lasting, and precious; and, as we come to recognize and realize that we are all dwelling in one sphere of life in Him, we learn to look on every believer as our brother (or sister), in a sense that is infinitely higher than all human relationships. This is the one and only way to bring disciples permanently together. All other plans for promoting the unity of the Church have failed.
